

WHY MAILER MATTERS

N I C H O L A S S A M A R A S

Because, in the end, we are actually not animals.
We don't have to reinvent wheels.

Because, when another has said it exquisitely for us, revelation is parthenogenesis.

Because there is no expiration date on truth and light,
light and truth continuing us whole.

Because literature is the only mistress whose body lasts.